Trinity College, one of the most famous colleges in the United Kingdom, was founded in 1546 by Henry VIII., most of the buildings now in existence dating from the 16th and 17th centuries. The College boasts of the largest Court of any University in Europe, also a beautiful Hall (1604) and a fine Chapel (1554-6). The fountain in the centre of the Court was built by Neville in 1602 and rebuilt in 1716.
